Dear Parents

Walk to School Week

It's Walk to School Week next week, May 20th - 24th , and May is also #NationalWalkingMonth.

Walking to school is a great activity for parents, carers and children to get active and is also great for our environment and our local communities. Spring is a wonderful time for walking and there's lots of nature and birdlife to see,hear and experience.

So, if you can, why not head to school on foot every day next week and enjoy the brighter mornings and warmer weather.

We would love to see any photos of children taking part to and from school next week.
